The purpose of the Salvatorian is to strengthen, to defend and to spread the Catholic faith everywhere insofar as this is committed to it by Divine Providence. Therefore, by exercising this ecclesiastical teaching function in word and writing, it intends to achieve the end that all people might know more and more the one true God and Him whom He sent, Jesus Christ.

Palm Sunday is the final Sunday of Lent, the beginning of Holy Week, and commemorates the triumphant arrival of Christ in Jerusalem, days before he was crucified.

Palm Sunday is known as such because the faithful will often receive palm fronds which they use to participate in the reenactment of Christ's arrival in Jerusalem. In the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a young donkey, and to the lavish praise of the townspeople who threw clothes, or possibly palms or small branches, in front of him as a sign of homage. This was a customary practice for people of great respect.

Palm branches are widely recognized symbol of peace and victory, hence their preferred use on Palm Sunday.

The use of a donkey instead of a horse is highly symbolic, it represents the humble arrival of someone in peace, as opposed to arriving on a steed in war.

One week later, Christ would rise from the dead on the first Easter. During Palm Sunday Mass, palms are distributed to parishioners who carry them in a ritual procession into church. The palms are blessed and many people will fashion them into small crosses or other items of personal devotion. These may be returned to the church, or kept for the year.

Because the palms are blessed, they may not be discarded as trash. Instead, they are appropriately gathered at the church and incinerated to create the ashes that will be used in the following year's Wednesday observance. The colors of the Mass on Palm Sunday are red and white, symbolizing the redemption in blood that Christ paid for the world.

La Settimana Santa è la settimana nella quale si celebrano gli eventi di Fede correlati agli ultimi giorni di Gesù, comprendenti in particolare la sua Passione, Morte e Risurrezione. Inizia con la Domenica delle Palme, e culmina nella celebrazione della Pasqua.

Il solenne Triduo Pasquale della Passione, Morte e Risurrezione di Cristo viene aperto con la Messa nella Cena del Signore, nella quale si ricorda l'Ultima Cena di Gesù, la istituzione dell'Eucarestia e del Sacerdozio ministeriale, e si ripete il gesto simbolico della Lavanda dei piedi effettuato da Cristo nell'Ultima Cena. Al termine l'Eucaristia viene riposta nell'Altare della Reposizione, davanti al quale i fedeli permangono in adorazione.

Il Venerdì Santo è il giorno della morte di Gesù sulla Croce. La Chiesa celebra verso le tre del pomeriggio la solenne celebrazione della Passione, divisa in tre parti:

La Liturgia della Parola, con la lettura del quarto canto del servo del Signore, dell'Inno cristologico della lettera ai Filippesi e della Passione secondo Giovanni.

L'Adorazione della Croce.

La santa Comunione con i presantificati.

Il Sabato Santo è tradizionalmente giorno senza liturgia: non si celebra l'Eucaristia, e la Comunione ai malati si porta solamente ai malati in punto di morte.

Nella notte si celebra la solenne Veglia Pasquale, che è la celebrazione più importante di tutto l'Anno Liturgico. In essa: Si celebra la Resurrezione di Cristo attraverso la liturgia del fuoco: al fuoco nuovo si accende il cero pasquale, che viene portato processionalmente in chiesa.

La liturgia della Parola ripercorre con sette letture dell'Antico Testamento gli eventi principali della storia della salvezza, dalla Creazione del mondo, passando attraverso la liberazione del popolo d'Israele dalla schiavitù d'Egitto, fino alla promessa della Nuova Alleanza. L'Epistola proclama la vita nuova in Cristo risorto, e nel Vangelo si legge il racconto dell'apparizione degli Angeli alle Pie donne la mattina di Pasqua.

Segue la liturgia battesimale, nella quale tutti i fedeli rinnovano le promesse del proprio battesimo, e vengono battezzati, se ce ne sono, i catecumeniche si sono preparati al Sacramento. La Liturgia Eucaristica si svolge come in tutte le Messe.

I riti della Settimana Santa sono celebrati con solennità e allo stesso modo in tutte le chiese del mondo cristiano.
